M. E. Jansson, representing Barley & Co., of Chicago, is in the city on business.

The Eagles will hold a meeting tonight at 8 o'clock, and all members are requested to attend.

George C. Brewer, the insurance adjuster, is at Santa Fe on business. He will probably return to the city tonight.

Harry Coddington, sheriff of McKinley county, and William Buckley, were at Santa Fe yesterday on official business.

Howard Clarke, connected with the Benham Indian Trading company, who was at Santa Fe on business, has returned to the city.

Tomorrow H. J. Paulsen, son of H. C. Paulsen, the ticket broker, will leave for Kansas City, where he will engage in the jewelry business.

Frank McKee, mayor of the city accompanied by Louis McRae, left last night for Socorro and Magdalena. They will be absent several days.

Hon. W. H. Pope, associate supreme court justice, has left Roswell for Athens, Ga., where on Wednesday, November 23, he will become a benedict.

Miss Candelaria Barela, a popular young lady of the city, was a passenger for El Paso last night, where she will visit relatives and friends for a few weeks.

L. A. Dye was a passenger last night for Las Vegas, where he goes on lumber matters. Mr. Dye is the principal owner of the Rio Grande Lumber company.

The New Mexican says: Policarpo Armijo, Alfredo Armijo and Jacobo Armijo, of Albuquerque, were visitors in the Capital City Sunday on a short pleasure and business trip.

W. A. Skinner, the well known territorial sheep inspector, who is kept busy these days, is at Santa Fe inspecting sheep that are being shipped from Estancia to Colorado points.

W. Smith, who recently purchased a lot next to Trimble's red barn, on West Copper avenue, is putting up a brick building for a blacksmith shop. A. V. Tugener has the contract to erect the building.

P. R. Mosher was a passenger last night for Thoreau and thence to Ketchikan, where he goes as cook in the lumber camp of Horabin-McGaffey company. Mrs. Mosher accompanied her husband.

Steam heat, for the first time, was turned on in the new and old buildings of the Sturges European hotel, and everything worked like a charm. The fixtures were furnished and placed in position by the Standard Plumbing and Heating company.

J. E. Haines and Roderick Stover, two first class hunters of the city, left this morning on a quail hunt on the mesa. Before returning to the city, they may extend their pilgrimage to the mountains and capture a wild turkey or two for Thanksgiving.

James McCriston, the heavy weight cement sidewalk contractor, is reported to be seriously sick at his room on the Highlands. Dr. Carnes is the attending physician, and he says Mr. McCriston is a very sick man.

After a pleasant stay of a few days here, Harry Bamberger continued his trip to his home at Kansas City last night. He had been to Los Angeles on a visit and stopped over here to pay his respects to his uncle, H. C. Paulsen and family.

Edward B. Harsch and Isaac Cox, who left the other day for a wild turkey hunt in the Manzano mountains, returned to the city late yesterday afternoon. They remembered particular friends with a turkey, they having found the roost and killed half a dozen of these fine Thanksgiving birds.

Mrs. Agnes Morley Cleveland, of Los Angeles, daughter of Mrs. Ada Morley, came in from the west last night and continued south a few hours later. Mrs. Cleveland, who is a well known Magdalena writer, will spend a few weeks at her mother's ranch in the Datil mountains of Socorro county.

Last night the Young Ladies' Sodality of the Church of Immaculate Conception held a meeting and elected the following officers: Prefect, Miss Mary Maher; first assistant, Miss Augustine Girard; second assistant, Miss Cora Bocklett; secretary, Miss Sallie Maher; librarian, Miss Sofia Antoline.

F. C. Buell, for several years the editor and publisher of the Cerrillos Register, long since defunct on account of lack of patronage, is in the city, to enjoy metropolitan life for a couple of days. Mr. Buell is at present engaged in mining in the San Pedro district, and he represents himself as prospering the past few years.

Joe Sheridan, who officiated at several exciting badger fights at El Paso, in which Chas. F. Hunt demonstrated his ability as a pugger, has returned to the city and says the reason the mayor of El Paso proclaimed against any future badger fights in that city was because of the howl made by a delegate to the mining congress. "The delegate became so excited," said Mr. Sheridan, "that he bet all the money he had and could borrow on the dog and when the dog got linked the delegate got mad, hence the mining congress passed a resolution against badger fights and to keep in touch with the proceedings the mayor of that city issued a proclamation against such exhibitions of brutality in the future."

C. T. Brown, of Socorro, who was at Santa Fe, passed down the road for the Gen City last night. Mr. Brown is very busy these days, as in addition to managing several mining properties, he is purchasing agent for the Empire Zinc company of Chicago. Mr. Brown, who is an experienced and reliable mining man, says that the zinc producing industry of New Mexico has made great strides during the past three years, and in the near future bids fair to become a leading part of the mining business of the territory.

Charles V. Safford, the traveling auditor, passed up the road for Santa Fe yesterday from an official trip to Lincoln county. The financial records were examined by him at the county seat and found to be in good shape. Lincoln county is fairly prosperous, although the closing of the mines has caused some financial trouble. The farmers and stock raisers have done very well this year.

Attorney George B. Klock, of the firm of Klock & Owen, and Hon. John F. Shaforth, of Denver, are in Bernalillo today for the purpose of pushing claims of the Fidelity Casualty company against the estate of Isidor Freudenberg, deceased. Mr. Shaforth is one of the prominent politicians of Colorado and represented that state in congress several terms.

Garcia Bros., of this city, recently purchased 40,000 lambs from Arizona sheep raisers, and in turn sold them to Sylvester Bros., of Colorado. These lambs are now at the local stock yards, being dipped, after which they will be loaded onto double decked cars and shipped to Colorado, thence to the packers at Omaha, Kansas City, and Chicago.
